

THE NEW CENTURY PERIOD

As the 21st Century begins, Collins hand painted First Day Covers have established themselves as a permanent and important part of our First Day Cover hobby. Their ongoing collectibility has been ensured due to their proven record of success dating back to 1978. A suggested strategy would be to acquire those back covers from the current date to those still available from 2000 on. This could be done by acquiring back covers once or twice a month until you have reached your goal.
