THE "CENTURY'S END" PERIOD 1990-1999

As the years go by in the 2000s, any collectibles clearly identifiable as items from the 1900s will become increasingly desirable, sought after, and valuable. With dated postmarks by the United States Postal Service, First Day Covers are perfect collectibles for this category. Not only do the 1990 cachets close out the last century, but they are the last of the millennium as well. Collins covers will continue to flourish and gain in reputation in the 2000s. Prudent collectors will obtain "Century's End" covers for their holdings
